The school seriously needs your generous support in order to continue to provide our students with low cost theological training. President Harper and Rev. Dr. E.L. Wiseman, Chairman of the Board of Directors are making an urgent appeal to all churches, ministers, alumni, students, associations, conventions and supporters to make a contribution during our donation day program.

We are kindly requesting churches, associations and conventions contribute $200.00 and pastors, ministers, alumni and students $100.00. However, if you are unable to contribute the suggested amount, we will greatly appreciate any amount that you are willing and able to give.
